Where to Dine

CYRUS: Fine Dining (Dinner)

For a true culinary event, we recommend Cyrus. Chef Douglas Keane's multi-course tasting menu is one of the most refined dining experiences in Sonoma. Every course is a surprise, making it our pick for a celebratory evening away from the ranch.

SINGLETHREAD: Fine Dining (Dinner)

SingleThread is a three-Michelin-star experience we always suggest guests plan ahead for. Chef Kyle Connaughton and his wife Katina create an extraordinary tasting menu rooted in their nearby farm. It's an unforgettable dinner that beautifully reflects Sonoma's seasons. 131 North St, Healdsburg, CA | singlethreadfarms.com

THE MATHESON & ROOF 106: Refined Dining & Casual Rooftop (Lunch & Dinner)

Chef Dustin Valette's Matheson is right in downtown Healdsburg and one of our go-tos. We love the downstairs dining room for a polished meal showcasing Sonoma flavors. When we're in the mood for something more casual, the rooftop (Roof 106) is perfect for wood-fired pizzas, small plates, and cocktails with a view of the Plaza.

BRAVAS BAR DE TAPAS: Casual (Lunch & Dinner)

When we want a lively, relaxed evening, Bravas is our pick. The Spanish tapas are ideal for sharing, and the garden patio is a favorite spot to linger with friends. It's one of our top recommendations for groups who want something flavorful and fun.

DIAVOLA: Casual (Lunch & Dinner)

Just a short drive to Geyserville, Diavola is where we go for rustic Italian comfort food. The wood-fired pizzas and handmade pastas are perfect after a day of wine tasting—it's always bustling and always satisfying.

ACORN CAFÉ: Casual (Breakfast & Lunch)

When we're looking for something light and vibrant, we head to Acorn Café in downtown Healdsburg. It's a walk-up spot where the dishes are full of flavor. We love it for a casual breakfast, amazing brunch or lunch before wandering town.

TROUBADOUR: Casual Bakery & Café, Fine Dining by Night (Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner)

By day, Troubadour is our favorite stop for naturally fermented breads, pastries, and sandwiches—we often order them for the ranch. By night, the café transforms into an intimate 20-seat bistro offering Le Diner, a chef-driven six-course French menu served on antique plates. For small groups, their "Behind the King's Table" experience is a medieval-inspired prix fixe feast unlike anything else outside of Paris. 381 Healdsburg Ave, Healdsburg, CA | troubadourhbg.com

QUAIL & CONDOR: Artisan Bakery (Breakfast & Morning Treats)

This beloved downtown bakery, founded by former SingleThread pastry chef Melissa Yanc, was named one of the Best Bakeries Now in America by The New York Times. Known for breads and pastries that dazzle—like the super-seeded pan loaf, Friday's golden challah, delicate sourdough, and pistachio croissants—everything here is a masterpiece. Pastries sell out quickly, which is why as a NewTree Ranch guest, we take your order the night before and have your selections delivered fresh to your door at 9:00 AM.

Where to Wine Taste

FLOWERS VINEYARDS

The Minimalist and modern architecture with floor to ceiling windows, residential-style spaces and expansive terraced gardens will have you wanting to stay all day. Their grapes are unique to the land they farm and its coastal proximity, resulting in wines with nuance, complexity, and fresh coastal minerality. We recommend the Estate Vineyard Immersion, an in-depth tasting of estate Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from the extreme coastal sites is accompanied by seasonal pairing bites crafted by the House of Flowers culinary team.

Visitors can take a self-guided tour around the lush gardens that includes beehives and chickens. From the stunning view of the vineyards to the knowledgeable staff, every aspect of the wine tasting experience is authentic and exceptional. DAVERO FARMS & WINERY

With an organic farm, beautiful olive orchard, and exceptional wine selection, Davero is a must-visit destination. Guests can enjoy tours of the farm, tasting experiences of their wines and olive oils, and witness the sustainable and biodynamic farming practices in action. Wine enthusiasts can indulge in a variety of tastings, ranging from zesty whites to bold reds, including their signature wines. The olive oil tasting provides a guided experience to learn about different types of oils. With our shared vision of biodynamic farming Davero is one of our all time favorites. It truly captures the essence of Healdsburg and is a hidden gem waiting to be explored.

VANZ VINEYARDS

VanZ is the kind of place locals whisper about—a vineyard you'd never find on your own, but one well worth seeking out. Family-owned and tucked just outside Healdsburg, it offers intimate tastings that feel more like visiting friends than a winery stop. The wines are outstanding—limited-production bottlings with a Chardonnay we especially love on warm days. In summer, you can even settle into an Adirondack chair and dip your feet in Dry Creek while sipping—a rare insider's experience that captures the easy magic of Wine Country.

FORAGER

Forager, a modern mercantile established in 2021, is a NewTree favorite for their exceptional cookware from which we source our own. They have a passion to discover and curate unique home goods and vintage treasures. Their philosophy is to mix the very best from local artisans, global products and thoughtfully sourced antiques to cultivate a layered and warm feel for your own home. ÆRENA GALLERIES & GARDENS

ÆRENA offers more than a gallery visit—it's an experience. Guests can book a private morning tour before the doors open to the public, often paired with a light seasonal breakfast and, of course, a splash of ÆRENA wine. We love recommending it to those who want something more personal: time to take in the art at their own pace, guided by knowledgeable consultants, in a setting that feels both inspiring and bespoke.

RENA CHARLES GALLERY

When we want to see Healdsburg through a more local, soulful lens, we stop by the Rena Charles Gallery. Showcasing a thoughtful mix of contemporary and emerging artists, the space feels intimate and inviting—perfect for discovering something new and one-of-a-kind. Some of the art at NewTree Ranch is chosen in partnership with Rena Charles, pieces closely tied to nature and the spirit of the ranch, which makes this gallery especially meaningful to us.

HEALDSBURG FARMERS MARKET

If your visit lines up with the Healdsburg Farmers' Market, don't miss it. It's one of our favorite ways to start the morning in town. The market has been running since 1978, and it still feels wonderfully local—farmers unloading just-picked produce, fresh flowers spilling out of buckets, cheeses, breads, honey, even pasture-raised meats. We love grabbing a coffee, strolling the stalls, and chatting with the growers. Depending on the season, you might stumble into a zucchini race or pumpkin-carving contest, which makes it all the more fun..

Seasonallly on Tuesdays & Saturdays. Check website for location & date details: healdsburgfarmersmarket.org
